

The Gott Company is looking for a Propane Installation Technician to serve as the face of the company to customers and be responsible for the following activities: deliver, set, and install propane tanks, inside and outside lines; conduct system test; purge cylinders and tanks consistent with company standards; and maintain related documentation.

You must have experience operating machinery such as mini-excavators, trenchers, and crane trucks; a current CETP, Gas Fitter, Pipe Fitter, and Tank Installation certification; knowledge and understanding of pipe capacity and gas regulators; and a Class B CDL with proper endorsements, including Hazmat, Air Brake and Tanker. Must be able to commit to working overtime when necessary; able to read and interpret written information and to lift, pull, and or push 75 pounds.

We offer excellent pay along with health, dental, STD, LTD, & life insurance; paid vacation, sick, & holiday; 401(k) retirement plan with matching contribution & profit-sharing.

Candidates who meet the above required qualifications can fax their résumé to (410) 414-9058 or use the online form.